

Machine Gun Kelly, The Break Up

Girl I know
I know you bought me the watch you ain't get it back through my name's on the back though I flipped the lock to the back door and took the key under the mat though I know you hate that but you did somethings that you cannot take back I needed change left a nickle for a dime that is a payback
What you're saying?
Bitch I am over you and I ain't playing Should've been a one night stand but here we go again

I wish that I loved you
Or that I cared or that I'd even give a damn if you were here but you're gone so it's fuck you I'm a player
I am everything that you wanted but you're scared please never call me do not mention me in any stories do not show up at the homie's party come up to me and then say I'm sorry you're just a /2x hold up let me stop the Henry shots get the petty talk comong I don't wanna have them thoughts running can't believe that I bust in a thot's stomach fuck is wrong with you but the head was phenomenal used to do that in the car with you used to travel around the world just for the rendezvous now I gotta get high just to deal with you these te chronicles

I wish that I loved you
Or that I cared
but you're gone so it's fuck you
I'm a player
I am everything that you wanted but you're scared
I wish that I loved you
Or that I cared
but you're gone so it's fuck you
I'm a player
I am everything that you wanted but you're scared
