

Machine Head, Blistering

you stabbed me in the back over a sliver a feeling i have been betrayed both hands broken together clenching fists cause the rage

[chorus:]
it comes in spades
from a life of pain
i don't care 'cause i don't give a fuck it tears a path right through me a systematic vision of survival a struggle i alone engage tension burning inside me blood so sweet cause revenge

[chorus]
revenge i mine suffering divine fractures break through bone frustrating won't let go filled with lead and dumped into the river and burned in a shallow grave

clenching fists cause the rage
