

Machine Head, The Frontlines

and i watched through bitter yeys as the blood filled in the cracks black a burning effigy told me i should kneel 'cause i'm worshipping

with terror, a disease burn the sacred oil

[chorus:]
they told us there'd never come a day they told us that we need not worry so we fucked around, thought this shit would change and turned our eyes away

i am the power siege and the rush you will feel, thrill exploding out of me through clenched teeth i will scream out we're suffering with malice you deceive puke sold as salvation

[chorus]
[lead: Logan]

and i watched it slip away and you watched it slip away and we watched it slip away cause no one took a stand
