

Machines Of Loving Grace, If I Should Explode

Coffee cup
Mabou Mines
shooting up the power lines I don't know what's on my mind dreaming of a simpler time and if I should explode into gasping Mary please take me home to where the cross is rose

an open mind the weathermen are flying blind you seem to me the bleeding kind just dreaming of a simpler time if I should explode into gasping Mary please take me home to where the cross is rose
