

Mad At Gravity, Burn

These embers burn down low
And with my face aglow
You are all I know

Set this place on fire
Watch the flames rise higher
And as they reach the ceiling
At your feet I'm kneeling

Drawing ever near
My cause revealed as clear
Yes I burn for you here

Set this place on fire
Watch the flames rise higher
And as they reach the ceiling
At your feet I'm kneeling

With every trailing plume,
Know it bears me home

I would give it all
Yes, I would give it all
Yes, I would give it all
Yes, I would give it all

Set this place on fire
Watch the flames rise higher
And as they reach the ceiling
At your feet I'm kneeling

With every trailing plume,
Know it bears me home

Let it burn
Let it burn
