

Mad At Gravity, In Vain

Minds, it's cold outside
Will go unbroken, close the door
Thoughts, once complete
Will fade away, never more

I'm reaching to find
The words to define
The meaning entwined
In every aching line
In vain
I'm waiting
Here at the end
The urge to defend
The meaning in trend
Will never let me bend
In vain

Words, it's cold outside
Remain unspoken, close the door
Hands, once complete
Will soon decay, never more

I'm reaching to find
The words to define
The meaning entwined
In every aching line
In vain
I'm waiting
Here at the end
The urge to defend
The meaning in trend
Will never let me bend
In vain

Can you hear me?
Do I speak in vain?
Don't leave the light on
Slumber becomes you the same

I'm reaching to find
The words to define
The meaning entwined
In every aching line
In vain
I'm waiting
Here at the end
The urge to defend
The meaning in trend
Will never let me bend
In vain

And still I'm twitching to find
(Can you hear me?)
The words to define
The meaning entwined
In every aching line
(Do I speak in vain?)
I'm waiting
(Can you hear me?)
The urge to defend
The meaning in trend
Will never let me bend
(Do I speak in vain?)
