

Mad At The World, Dry Your Tears

This life is a series of hellos and goodbyes
Ten thousand different people pass before my eyes
And every day another story line begins
But every night you end with loneliness again
I only know too clearly what you're going through
But it can lead you to a different point of view

CHORUS

So dry your tears (you have been invited)
Creation and (Creator united)
So understand (don't be so near-sighted)
In a world where you see
Nothing everywhere (everywhere)
Close your eyes and pray
Heaven could be calling your name

Please, don't get caught up in the heartache and the pain
That seems so easy for the human race to bring
Sometimes you wonder where a path like this could lead
That causes you inside to cry, suffer and bleed
Don't let life be emotion taking you nowhere
Don't listen to the lies that tell you not to care

Mm, Heaven

CHORUS

Heaven could be calling you
