

Mad Caddies, Hound Bound

I mix it up I wash It down now I guess it's all I ever learned to do when I'm with you last chance second nature I see a road that leads right to your door. do I want more?

now I'm hearin everybody talk and then I ask myself what exactly am I supposed to do?

yes I'm leavin
yes I'm leavin you behind I'm still believing
what we had was really never mine lookin back a blank expression penetrated silence into me and I'm startin to bleed what do I need?

who do I talk to?
confidence is long since passed away but I'm here to say now I see the people walk by (I watch them pass) coroded minor notes playin in the back end of my mind

yes I'm leavin
yes I'm leavin you behind
I'm still believing
what we had was really never mine
