

Mad Marge And The Stonecutters, Don't Put Up A

I see a lair here filled with our dirty secrets
And if you want me then you'll have to be fair.
See you coming closer. You're coming on to me.
But you must know that I lack sympathy.
If you only listen. Yeah, If you'd only listen
You'd understand that your words just keep dragging me down.

Now you're gonna stay up all night
Just to make things right so,
Don't put up a fight.
And you make me wish that I were dead
With one in my hand so,
Don't put up a fight.

We are the golden children we live just as we please.
But your words keep coming and I must say that I disagree.
Now, If you would take a moment to just listen to me
I'll tell you sorry no matter how hard it would be.
Will you take one second? Just hold on a second.
To slip out and see exactly what it is that I see.

Now you're gonna stay up all night
Just to make things right so,
Don't put up a fight.
And you make me wish that I were dead
With one in my hand so,
Don't put up a fight.
