

Mad Marge And The Stonecutters, Monsters

Dangerous faces of a thousand swords
Who all those had been killed in glory.
All I know is what I see
Is what I thought was make believe.

All I know is when I get home
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Glowing in the dark
You're breaking my heart.
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Hiding under the bed.

Creeping and sneaking
this is true believing.
I'm shaking. I'm nervous.
What was I thinking?

All I know is when I get home
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Glowing in the dark
You're breaking my heart.
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Hiding under the bed.

All I know is when I get home
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Glowing in the dark
You're breaking my heart.
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Hiding under the bed.

Deceive. I must believe
What I thought was make believe.
I'm running. There coming.
I see them chasing after me.

All I know is when I get home
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Glowing in the dark
You're breaking my heart.
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Hiding under the bed.

Monster. Whoa Monsters.
Monster. Whoa Monsters.

All I know is when I get home
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Glowing in the dark
You're breaking my heart.
Monsters hiding under the bed.
Hiding under the bed.
