

Madasun, Don't You Worry

Little boy on my telephone
You've been away now you wanna come home
It's kinda strange since you were the one
Who left me on my own

Don't you worry I'm doin fine
No don't you worry That you left me behind
Coz I love my freedom And I love my life
So don't you worry Coz I'm doin fine

It's a little crazy you decided to call
I was thinking about it just an hour ago
I was wondering if you've changed
I hope that you've grown Won't you let me know
It's been about a year since I heard you're voice
And I can't pretend that I'm not curious
If you're wondering why I'm not making a fuss
I guess I'm over us, so

Don't you worry I'm doin fine
No don't you worry That you left me behind
Coz I love my freedom And I love my life
So don't you worry Coz I'm doin fine

Don't you ask me If I still love you
Coz the day you left my life You lost all your rights
Don't you wonder What I'm doin
Cause all you need to know Is that I'm doin fine

Don't you worry I'm doin fine
No don't you worry That you left me behind
Coz I love my freedom And I love my life
So don't you worry Coz I'm doin fine
