

Madball, Across Your Face (Another Version)

So in your eyes we've always been the bad guys dropping false knowledge you're just full of lies you misled our youth to distract them with fantasy but your plan backfired blew out into reality I've taken on losers like you in the past so why should I stoop to your sorry ass i thought you were my friend but you only showed me disgrace I'll slapp you with reality across your face
