

Madball, Waste Of Time

Wasted my time, you wasted your time on me
Let's face the facts that we must break clean Fucked with my mind, I was too blind to see
So I waited patiently
I will not stand by and try
I will not stand by your side
You drained the life out of me
Livin' in such misery
Life is not kind, people are filled with greed
You are no exception, you were no friend to me
Fucked with my mind
Took self esteem and I waited anxiously
What did you mean, you said you cared for me
I was so naive, I let walk all over me
I've gained courage, now I am
So better off without you in my life
You sold me out and though it all you fuckin' wasted my time.
I've realized though all your lies you did not think too much of me
You helped yourself and did not think to offer me your company
The hurt inside will heal in time and that's the price I have to pay
And that's just fine, I've done my time and now I'm glad to walk away cause after all, you fuckin'
wasted my time
