

Madison, You Keep The Money

Can you believe in me?
The lonely boy, the sleeper of the year
Just let me clear my throat
I'll get stuck in your head for hours
So keep on judging me
I love attention
Make assumptions
Just let me clear my throat
I'll get stuck in your head

Fed up
Fed up
You know you want it
Look up
Look up
Your sky is falling
The great thing is I called you on it
The great thing is I called you on it
Fed up
Fed up
You know you want it
Look up
Look up
Your sky is falling
The great thing is you know you want it
The great thing is you know you want it

Just let me clear my throat
I'll get stuck in your head for hours
I'm not going anywhere
I'm used to being close
So can you believe in me?
The lonely boy, the sleeper of the year
Your uncontested comeback
Your uncontested comeback

Fed up
Fed up
You know you want it
Look up
Look up
Your sky is falling
The great thing is I called you on it
The great thing is I called you on it
Fed up
Fed up
You know you want it
Look up
Look up
Your sky is falling
The great thing is you know you want it

And when the room gets quiet
Then I'll be at my best
Living lies while breaking ties
All while sorting out this mess
And when the room gets quiet
Then I'll be at my best
All while sorting out this mess we have

Fed up
Fed up

You know you want it
Look up
Look up
Your sky is falling
The great thing is I called you on it
The great thing is I called you on it
Fed up
Fed up
The great thing is I called you
Fed up
Fed up
The great thing is I called you
