

Madness, Are You Coming

Could it be someone's telling lies
Or could it be that I'm getting wise
Awoke myself from a nose-dive glide
I caught myself but you've lost all pride

I'm not going with you
Won't you come on with me ?

See your world in a drift fly past
So good the feeling you want to last

I'm not going with you
Would you come on with me ?

I'm not here to watch day and night
Or to hear you drift out of life

If I could wake you
A moment I would
Share you my lifeline
Feed you some good
If I could wake you
A moment I would

Share you my lifeline
Feed you some (good)

I'm worried for you
But you not for me

When everyone's living
I know where you'll be

If I should listen to your proposal
Put my future at your disposal

Promise me you'll keep yourself clean
Cut yourself from your mid-day dream.

If I could wake you
A moment I would
Share you my lifeline
Feed you some good
If I could wake you
A moment I would
Share you my lifeline and
Feed you some good
