

Madonna, Quavo, Future

Not everyone is coming to the future,
Not everyone is learning from the past
Not everyone can come into the future,
Not everyone that's here is gonna last (Gonna last)
Not everyone is coming to the future,
Not everyone is learning from the past
Not everyone can come into the future,
Not everyone that's here is gonna last (Gonna last)

you ain't woke come here woke and hear the broken come give hope
come give filfe
only get one
so we gotta live it right

come, make peace come to pick an inspiration come complete you advise, positive vibes
open your mind
open your eyes

Not everyone is coming to the future,
Not everyone is learning from the past
Not everyone can come into the future,
Not everyone that's here is gonna last (Gonna last)
Not everyone is coming to the future,
Not everyone is learning from the past
Not everyone can come into the future,
Not everyone that's here is gonna last (Gonna last)

to the future
past
future
last

I hope you know, know my life is gold
I drip that ice
I see ythe signs just free your mind
welcome to the future
it's a culture ride
too much plain inside it's an override you've been puttin' too much time tryin to survive don't like the person in your past so you let 'em die (let your sun shine)

Not everyone is coming to the future,
Not everyone is learning from the past
Not everyone can come into the future,
Not everyone that's here is gonna last (Gonna last)
Not everyone is coming to the future,
Not everyone is learning from the past

we can light up the dark everyone has a spark don't tell me to stop cause you said do your future is bright just don't turn off the light tell the sun not to shine cause you said so

Not everyone is coming to the future,
Not everyone is learning from the past
Not everyone can come into the future,

from the past

it's the future where we come from being stars
bein' hard
beat 'em all
bein' boss
it's the future where you gotta pat the cost it's the future where you come from bein' lost
it's the future
crucifixion on the cross but you know that I;ma rise above it all
