

Madrigal, Enticed

yearning for life
weak search for faith see them all allow themselves to be part of this waste see weak vanish away
see them live with the lie
see just another betrayal
see how they die...

Abusing the weak to relieve your own bane controlling the weak to the free from your pain to see you like this will draw tears from my eyes you've been ... you've been enticed...

crying out for a helping hand just to find that it's gone for you this world has been belied you lone in dawn
see weak vanish away
see how they die...

you've been ... you've been enticed...
