

Madrigal, In Debris

deluded into despair
this emptiness
more than i can bear
all i own is pain and sorrow all i know is guilt
anxiety, disgust of tomorrow i'm drowning in my filth...

your shallow soul blinds me

all i feel in this weary hour is weakness and dismay
in solitude
thoughts resolve around your way all i see is you
slipping further away
lost in a void of grey...

i see you
all this hate for you
i feel you
all this love for you
