Madvillain, Raid

(MF Doom) Two two one-two...

How Doom hold heat, and preach non-violence? Shhh, he 'bout to start the speech, c'mon, silence

On one scary night, I saw the light

Heard a voice that sound like Barry White said " Sure you're right"

Don't let me find out who tried to bite

They better off goin to fly a kite in a firefight during tornado time with no coat then I caught ya

Wrote the book on rhymes, a note from the author

With no headshot, he said it's been a while

Got a breadwinner style to get a inner child up in to smile

And that's no exaggeration

The doctor told a patient " It's all in your imagination negro"

Ahh, what do he know?

About the buttery flow, he need to cut the ego

Trippin, to date the Metal Fellow been rippin flows since New York plates was ghetto yellow with broke blue writing

This is too exciting

Folks leave out the show feelin truly enlightened

They say " The Villain been spittin enough lightning to rock shock the Boogie Down to Brighton, " aight then

(M.E.D.)

Yeah, check, it's enough

Uhh, yeah, now

How Med hold heat like Clint East is reborn?

Lethal with more holes than a dartboard

Haters watch him, Hennessy double shot drink like the answer to the problem's at the bottle's bottom

Uhh, from the {?} that homey pay how you owe me

My niggaz take no like Kobe

Even with the the arms of the Hawk, you couldn't hold me from gettin mines, stogies be rolled, smokin and gettin by

Thanks to rap I ain't got a dime

Got me sneakin out of checkout lines with bottles by the waistside

Yeah, smack 'em in the face, let 'em taste pride

Face trial, end up washed up like the shorelines

Do or die ride, how the dead return

Street turns, keep me in this dirt, like an earthworm

What he spit hits and grows, will brothers ever learn

Worth a word, chat with a nerd, meeting adjourned
