

Mae, Brink Of Disaster

Light starts in a dark place
The story of a car chase
And Ive become the criminal
And fleeing from this scene
And being caught in a bad dream
The truth becomes the unthinkable (yeah)

Im on the brink of disaster
Starin down the consequences
So brake hard well be better□
Tonight Ill do what it takes to fail
Goin there only faster
Jump the gun and throw it into gear
But the fact of the matter
Were out of control asleep at the wheel
Asleep at the wheel
Were out of control asleep at the wheel

Night falls with no grace
I said I can do anything
But I can do anything wrong
And with burning speed
The rearview says he's catching up to me
But Im already gone

Im on the brink of disaster
Starin down the consequences
So brake hard well be better
Tonight Ill do what it takes to fail
Goin there only faster
Jump the gun and throw it into gear
But the fact of the matter
Were out of control asleep at the wheel
Asleep at the wheel

Tearin it down to open up the highway
Were looking for exits
No pretending
Speeding out and around with a silvering smash
Starin at a car crash
Oh, the chase is ending

Im on the brink of disaster
Starin down the consequences
So brake hard well be better
Tonight Ill do what it takes to fail
Im goin there only faster
Jump the gun and throw it into gear
But the fact of the matter
The end is coming

Im on the brink of disaster
Starin down the consequences
So break hard well be better
Were out of control asleep at the wheel
Asleep at the wheel
Asleep at the wheel
Asleep at the wheel
Were out of control asleep at the wheel
