

Magazine, Wide Open Road

Well the drums rolled off in my forehead and the guns went off in my chest Remember carrying the baby for you Crying in the wilderness

I lost track of my friends, I lost my kin
I cut them off as limbs
I drove out over the flatlands hunting down you and him

The sky was big and empty
My chest filled to explode
I yelled my insides out at the sun
At the wide open road

it's a wide open road, it's a wide open road

How do you think it feels sleeping by yourself?
when the one you love, the one you love is with someone else

Then it's a wide open road
It's a wide open road
And now you can go any place that you ever wanted to go

I wake up in the morning thinking I'm still by your side I reach out just to touch you then I realise

It's a wide open road
It's a wide open road
