

Magda Hanausek, For A.

In the fog I hardly see your face
In the fog I'm hiding to chase your footsteps
I can't believe you're gone
It's been more than a year I guess
I dare you
Just to call my name, wake me up again
To say 'I've missed you'

Long ago I thought that I would change your mind
Long ago I thought that you were here to stay
I can't believe you're gone
It's been more than a year I guess
I dare you
Just to call my name, wake me up again
To say 'I've missed you'
I can't believe you're gone
It's been more than a year I guess
I dare you
Just to call my name wake me up again
To say 'I'm here'

I wish you'd say
I wish you've stayed
Cause everyday you're gone
Everyday I see
You've taken part of me
Taken part of me
Part of me
