

Magenta, Black Tomorrow

There are only --inaudible--
On the pack of love
You chose my way
When you left home

Like a dead pan landing
This pain is overwhelming
A night song for the path tomorrow
Drinking away all the sorrow

My favorite fate is
Leaving me alive
Your vicious demons
Won't make me cry
(Won't make me cry)

Like a dead pan landing
This pain is overwhelming
A night song for the path tomorrow
Drinking away all the sorrow

Like a dead pan landing
This pain is overwhelming
A night song for the path tomorrow
Drinking away all the sorrow

With nothing left to lose
This is the path I choose
After love has left
I'm dating death
Dating death

(Won't make me cry)

Like a dead pan landing
This pain is overwhelming
(Won't make me cry)
A night song for the path tomorrow
Drinking away all the sorrow

Like a dead pan landing
This pain is overwhelming
(Won't make me cry)
A night song for the path tomorrow
Drinking away all the sorrow

(Won't make me cry)
