

Maggie Bell, Queen Of The Night

I am a woman
And I had my freedom
I was the universe in your eyes
I was the sunset and surprise
Would you love me? Love me.
I know you send your regards
To the Queen of the Night

She twisted your hair
Held it with love at night
The flow from her sweet tongue
How could you let it fool you to thinking
You're winning
Life is but so in pain
I know you send your regards
To the Queen of the Night

I am a woman
And I had my freedom

And I was the universe
And I was the sunset and surprise
And would you love me?
I know you send your regards
To the Queen of the Night

Oh, regards to the Queen of the Night
(She's the Queen of the Night)
Yes, I'm a sweet lovin' woman
(She's the Queen of the Night)
Oh, yeah, give me some lovin'
(She's the Queen of the Night)
I'm a sweet lovin' woman
(She's the Queen of the Night)
Oh, yeah I need some lovin'
(She's the Queen of the Night)
Sweet lovin' woman
(She's the Queen of the Night)
