

Maggie Reilly, Oh My Heart

I didn't know it would feel like this
To miss the warmth of a tender kiss
To lie here on my own
Awake adrift alone
And watch the dawn
Bring in another empty day

No one told me how joy can fade
With separation, doubts invade
Do I have faith enough?
Help me find a way

Oh my heart
I'd share this moment with you now
Oh my heart
If I could hold you here

A little piece of heaven
To bring you closer to me
With all my heart
I'll keep this love shining
Till you come back to me
Oh my heart

So sleep, come take me now
And send me all my hopes allow
I'll wrap you in my arms
And carry us away

Oh my heart
I'd share this moment with you now
Oh my heart
I need to feel you near

A little piece of heaven
To bring you closer to me
With all my heart
I'll keep this love shining
Till you come back to me
Oh my heart

Just to walk with you in the rain
(Don't you know it almost broke my heart)
Always be like it was the first time

Oh my heart
Don't let this moment disappear
Oh my heart
I need to feel you near

A little piece of heaven
To bring you closer to me
With all my heart
I'll keep this love shining
Till you come back to me

A little piece of heaven
To bring you closer to me
With all my heart
I'll keep this love burning
Till you come back to me...
