

Maggie Reilly, Syonia

Fly away
I will be there with you
Even tho' you want to be free
You carry my love along
As you journey over the sea
And when you lie awake in the darkness
Thinking of me
In all your dreams remember the way
Our love used to be

Sail across the sea
But you know you could have
Flown with me
Over the top of the mountains
And the birds in the trees
Are singing their song
But you're not here
To share it with me

And with me
You could be my love
Come to me
You know we could fly
Oh to me
And you be my love
Come to me
