

Maggie Reilly, Wind On The Water

Far away
But still I hear your call
My heart overflows
When I'm thinking of you

Oh, but if wishing made it so
I would be born again
Across the ocean

Silent waters
Carry me back
Through the morning light

Bathed in beauty
All around me
Till the moment
When I come home to you

Till the moment
When I come home to you...
