

Maggie Reilly, You'll Never Lose

How can I show you what I feel when we're together
When nothing I can do can seem to make it right
I always wanted perfect love to last forever
Now all that I can see is the writing on the wall
Then in that moment when I think we just can't make it
I know you'll never let me down

You'll never lose
Just look in my direction
Don't try to choose
It's out of your control
You'll never lose
I long for your affection
You'll never lose

My head is spinning, can't you hear the voices crying
Sending their messages from somewhere up above
Just like a bird, my spirits soar when we're together
How can I make you feel this longing for your touch
Oh, can't you feel it, there's a special kind of magic Caught in the moon and stars above

You'll never lose
Just look in my direction
Don't try to choose
It's out of your control
You'll never lose
I long for your affection
You'll never lose

You'll never lose
Just look in my direction
Don't try to choose
It's out of your control
You'll never lose
I long for your affection
You'll never lose

You'll never lose
Just look in my direction
Don't try to choose
It's out of your control
You'll never lose
I long for your affection
You'll never lose
