

Maggie Rogers, Fallingwater

hold on i though that i could it from here I thought that I was calm in the clear now it's getting harder

I thought I was doing well like everything was under a spell
now it's getting harder

I never loved you fully in the way I could I fought the current running just the way you would
and now I am in the creek and it's getting harder I am like Fallingwater

go on and tell me just what i am supposed to say as if it could be any other way it's getting louder

and tell me just how I could allow all that's light to end up somehow where's it's getting darker

I never loved you fully in the way I could
I am like Fallingwater

and I am like Fallingwater set me free you were like Fallingwater coming down on me

I never loved you fully in the way I could
but now I am in yje creek and it was coming down on me when I was standing in the creek

I am like Fallingwater
