

Maggie Rogers, Give A Little

if I was who I was before then I'd be waiting at your door but I cannot confess I am the same so look at me and here me now with all my body screaming out oh in my mind I'm thinking of a place where no one knows me and no one knows you

you don't know me
and I don't know you

if you would open up your heart drop your weapons drop your guard just a little trust is all it takes

I know that you've been around but hear me now I'm crying out let me be the light upon the lake and if you give a little, get a little maybe we would get to know each other give a little, get a little give a little

give a little

if only we could find a way to leave all of our darker days soak in all the sweetness and if on our skin and if you waiting in the sun then carry me on wings of love to the brighter day where all begins

and if you give a little, get a little

and if no one knows me
you don't know me
and I don't know you

everything's fresh everything's new
you don't know me
and I don't know you

I can feel it starting up now I can feel it all coming through there's a whole new world just waiting baby so much waiting just for me and you
