

Magic Affair, Fly Away

Artist: Magic Affair

Title: Fly Away (La Serenissima)

When you see the sun goes
And you hear the angels cry
When the rain was falling down
You know it's mystery
When the light is all around
And emotions touch the sky
When your feet just lose the ground...
Why don't you fly away

...La Serenissima....

I can't live without you
I can't breathe without you
Theres no love without you
no world without you (ohhhh)

I can't be without you
Can't even dream without you

Theres no place without you
No freedom without you (whoaa ohhh)

I can't love without you
Can't think without you
Theres no meaning without you
No pleasure without you

I can't cry without you
Can't even die without you
Theres no life without you
No lovin' without you(whoaa ohhh)

When you see the sun goes
And you hear the angels cry
When the rain was falling down
You know it's mystery
When the light is all around
And emotions touch the sky
When your feet just lose the ground...
Why don't you fly away
