

Magic Knight Rayearth, Closing Theme Season 2

You are like a fast wind that sweeps across the surface of the ocean
And all the dreams that you have always taking care of
By infinite rays of the sun

And now as I see you
Your back is turned me
But you are reaching
Pointing towards future
Both your wings are broken
So why do you hide all your pain?

Softly, let wipe away your tears
Softly, let me hold you in my arms
Softly, let me comfort you
Because I want to see you in your glory

I'll give you, I'll give you
If you choose to lay your head down
All the dreams that you dream will live on
I'll give you, I'll give you
If you hold the heart is true now
Then your love will return back to you
I'll give you my love lullaby
