

Magic Knight Rayearth, Lulaby

You are like the fast wind that sweeps across the surface of the ocean and all the dreams that you had taken care of by infinite rays of the sun

And now as I see you Your back is turned on me but you are reaching pointing towards the future
Both your wings are broken
So why do you hide all your pain?

Softly, let me wipe away your tears
Softly, let me hold you in your arms Softly, let me comfort you because I want to see you win your glory

I'll give you, I'll give you
If you choose to lay your head down
All the dreams that you live will live on

I'll give you. I'll give you,
If you hold your heart is true now
Then you will return back to you

I'll give you my love lulaby!!
