

Magic Knight Rayearth, Yuzurenai Negai (Unyielding)

English (Dubbed Version)

Hold on to that dream
Tomorrow knows, where and when
It's true, what you believe
Don't let go, the road will never end

The sunset melts into the deep blue sea,
It turns a crimson shade (a wonderful free-fall).
I just want to have the wind,
Take me far away.

I've cleared impossible hurdles before,
But I know that there's more,
And I know I can make it.
Who's to blame when it's not the best,
That I can achieve.

Hold on to that dream
Tomorrow knows, where and when
It's true, what you believe
Don't let go, the road will never end

Keep trying to believe,
The biggest part of you,
And now you're ready to go.

(continuing to full version)

How much longer do I have to cry,
Before tomorrow's light? (a night full of sorrow)
All at once I found today
I finally hit my limit

I'm sure that when you are falling in love
It's just like blinking your eye
Before you know it, it flies away
I just want to know how strong I can be
When I'm searching for love

Hold on to that dream
Tomorrow knows, where and when
My lips, tightly sealed
But you can still, see it in my eyes
I've traveled down that road and found the greater love
This time I know it is real

I've cleared impossible hurdles before
But I know that there's more
And I know I can make it
But when I got up to the starting line
My legs were frozen with fear

Hold on to that dream
Tomorrow knows, where and when
Reach out, with both your arms
And take the key, that opens up your heart

Hold on to the dream
Tomorrow knows, where and when
It's true, what you believe
Don't let go, the road will never end

Keep trying to believe,

The biggest part of you,
And now your ready to go.
