

Magna-Fi, Bradbury Heights

lit the arena
filled it with cheers
10,000 lighters
20,000 ears
the top of the world
outside the county line

job at the bookbinders
bills yet to go
drank 'til it all became something that we don't know

in bradbury heights
every song's a soul today bradbury heights
put the fog machines away

45 minutes
late to the stage
just caught the last song tried but i can't stop the rage hung with some good friends broke them all down wondering when you would notice that i'm not around and she, wasn't supposed to be mine but i didnt know at the time and she, tried very hard but the light was fading out

lit the arena
20,000 ears
choked on our feelings
nothing to wash them all down
