

Magneta Lane, Butterflies Are Blue

Change

Always is so nice

Didn't even notice

Just as long as I was right

Hearts

Though they sometimes care

Our minds remain the rebels

And the dream was never there

Save myself again

Save myself again

Oh I save myself again

Oh yes I save myself again

Yah

Time

Handles everything

Waiting is a talent

At the end it all begins

Our hearts

Though they sometimes care

My mind remained the rebel

And the love was never there

Save myself again

Save myself again

Oh I save myself again

Oh yes I save myself again

Save myself again

Oh I save myself again

Oh yes I save myself again

Yes I save myself again
