

MagnetsU, White Lie In Black

May God forgive My white lies For our Love, For the world of tomorrow...

Do not chase But hark back

you see reflections of the true Love

Do not demand But visualize

and you hear rings of the pure Chime

Do not chase But hark back

you see re-creations of the Castle

Do not demand But visualize

and you hear songs of the phoenix

Is the foggy heart Black or white?

Is the wavin' tears Deep or shallow?

Is the courtly love Black or white?

Is the sleepin' beauty Distant or near?

You, the brave!

have no fear to pierce the stillness of the tide

Here forms an invisible Fate

You, the true heir to the sword!

never flinch from facing the state of the flux

Here sounds an inaudible will...of Love

(uh...)

You, the brave!

have no fear to pierce the stillness of the tide

Here forms an invisible Fate

You, the true heir to the sword!

never flinch from facing the state of the flux

Here sounds an inaudible will...of Love

la la la la la...

...now,

Both of the black and the white

Dissolve into the crystal sky

it's a Blaze of the Future

a Bond of our Love...
