

Magnum, All England's eyes

Not forsaken, another heart
They lie taken in foreign parts
Someone breakin' another heart
They lie waitin' in foreign parts
Old England's skies - turn black and she cries - wet again
All England's eyes - turn black and they cry - yet again
Standing over another heart
Winds blow colder in foreign parts
And the nameless, the sacred heart
Come to claim us from foreign parts
Old England's skies - turn black and she cries - wet again
All England's eyes - turn black and they cry - yet again
Old England's skies - turn black and she cries - wet again
All England's eyes - turn black and they cry - yet again
Oh! - Yeah! - Ooh!
(Keyboard Solo)
Old England's skies - turn black and she cries - wet again
All England's eyes - turn black and they cry - yet again
