Magnum, All England's eyes

Not forsaken, another heart They lie taken in foreign parts Someone breakin' another heart They lie waitin' in foreign parts Old England's skies - turn black and she cries - wet again All England's eyes - turn black and they cry - yet again Standing over another heart Winds blow colder in foreign parts And the nameless, the sacred heart Come to claim us from foreign parts Old England's skies - turn black and she cries - wet again All England's eyes - turn black and they cry - yet again Old England's skies - turn black and she cries - wet again All England's eyes - turn black and they cry - yet again Oh! - Yeah! - Ooh! (Keyboard Solo) Old England's skies - turn black and she cries - wet again All England's eyes - turn black and they cry - yet again
