

Magnum, Rock Heavy

All you people, got to get together
Don't confuse it, try to make it better
No more nation against nation, all this narrow vision
All you lawyers, all you teachers and you politicians

Are you ready? Are you ready?
Amen, I'll say it again
Are you ready?
Rock heavy, oh, rock heavy

Got to stand up for the sense and reason
Talk it over and we'll start believing
We're not guilty or suspicious of different dress and colour
All you preachers, all you bankers and you mathematicians

Are you ready? Are you ready?
Amen, I'll say it again
Are you ready?
Rock heavy, oh, rock heavy

A change has got to come
A change for everyone

Are you ready? Are you ready?
Amen, I'll say it again
Are you ready?
Rock heavy, oh, rock heavy
