

Magnum, Still

Just when I think it can't get worse
And I'm sure it's never going to work
You tell me everything's all right
And I know you'll take away the hurt

No words of wisdom, no story's end
I don't understand, you see
But I can't help myself, it's something I can't fight
That's the way it's going to be

Still hanging on - wait a lifetime for you
Hanging on - I'll be right there
Still hanging on - like the last time for you
Hanging on - someplace, somewhere

When I wake up and you're not there
I reach out, there's nothing left behind
I wonder what I'm looking for
I should know there's nothing there to find

No words of wisdom, no story's end
I don't understand, you see
But I can't help myself, it's something I can't fight
That's the way it's going to be

Still hanging on - wait a lifetime for you
Hanging on - I'll be right there
Still hanging on - like the last time for you
Hanging on - someplace, somewhere

Pick me up, take me away
Where you go, beautiful day
Take me away, over that rainbow
Out of the grey

Still hanging on - wait a lifetime for you
Hanging on - I'll be right there
Still hanging on - like the last time for you
Hanging on - someplace, somewhere
