

Magnum, The Last Goodbye

No more reasons why
It's your turn to cry
You're hurting inside
No more faith in you
You're dark side's come through
Don't know what to do

The days, they just fly
Since the last goodbye

Can't sleep - don't want to
To deep - you'll fall in
No fear - tomorrow
No tears - keep them in
No more lies
No more alibis
Can't take - heartbroken
You can't face being alone

No more need to trust
The stakes just went up
You're all out of luck
Nothing left to say
The same everyday
It won't go away

And now the days, they just fly
Since the last goodbye

Can't sleep - don't want to
To deep - you'll fall in
No fear - tomorrow
No tears - keep them in
No more lies
No more alibis
Can't take - heartbroken
You can't face being alone

No you're walking along by yourself
And there's thunderclouds over your head
You don't know but you talk to yourself
And your looks could be waking the dead

And now the days, they just fly
Since the last goodbye

No more lies
No more alibis

Can't sleep - don't want to
To deep - you'll fall in
No fear - tomorrow
No tears - keep them in

To deep - you'll fall in
No fear - tomorrow
