

Mahalia, Cheat (Feat. JoJo)

Once a cheat always a cheat
Once a cheat always a cheat

You swear you're innocent but that's not the case
You've got that guilt written all over your face
You busy body, you can't stay in one place
You were out romancing and now you're asking for one more chance

I'mma give you one more
One more minute
Get up out here
Take all your shit
I'm about to reach my limit

Boy please

Tell me that girl is just a friend
Make me believe in you and then
You do it again
You hurt me again and again
Once a cheat always a cheat
That's why I don't believe in what you're saying to me Oh no no no
Once a cheat always a cheat
I shoulda used my mind, I shoulda left you last time

Oh did you really think I wouldn't find out
Bout all your late-night escapades on the town
(Yes I know)
What happened, you said you'd be holding me down Cuz you call a man your lover but there's other

One more, one more minute
Get up out here
Take all your shit
I'm about to reach my limit

Boy please

Tell me that girl is just a friend
Make me believe in you and then
You do it again
You hurt me again and again
Once a cheat always a cheat
That's why I don't believe in what you're saying to me Oh no no no
Once a cheat always a cheat
I shoulda used my mind, I shoulda left you last time

I just can't believe
You'd cheat on me
Tell me one thing:
Was it worth it baby?
Cuz it's over, I'm never looking back now It's the past, what we had is ruined
It's time that I focus on me
So I threw out your stuff, left your ass for the streets

Once a cheat always a cheat
That's why I don't believe in what you're saying to me Oh no no no
Once a cheat always a cheat
I shoulda used my mind, I shoulda left you last time
Shoulda left you last time
Always baby
Once a cheat, always a, always a cheat
Baby
