

Mainstay, Am I Keeping You?

Give me one more chance tonight to keep you waiting for nothing And make you stay here in this place where you are only what they say you are

You can save the lie, we are the ones who've seen the other side Say our own goodbyes leaving the world and all our cares behind

Give me one more chance today to keep you sitting in one place Riding on the fence you've made, you're only partly dying this way

Am I keeping you from life? Or am I keeping you alive?
