

Mainstay, Believe

I don't know if I still have the strength to get up again
I don't know if I can face my own reflection Jesus, take this heart that feels so cold again, and make it new

I hold this hope inside that you'll never leave me

When all around me starts to fall, and when my faith it seems so small Even in my darkest hour, I will believe Even if the sun begins to fall, even when I feel nothing at all Even if I'm all alone, I will believe

I don't know how I could turn my back and walk away
All I really want is for your love to hold me
Jesus, take this heart and make it whole again

I know you'll never leave me
