

Mainstay, October Came Late

All of the things you wanted were just outside your atmosphere
And if you could just have them you would be happy apart from me

And it took a while but it was more than worth the wait

The rain was falling when you said "I'm leaving"
I had to watch you go
I want this fall to change
I never heard you say that you were wrong

You picked out your path but didn't you ever wonder if I was ok?
And doesn't the guilt eat up your mind? I just thought I'd ask

And it took a while but it was more than worth the wait
This year october came

All these questions hid in me so long
I just want to hear you say you were wrong
