

Maisie Peters, Wendy

You're rolling like a stone
You're laughing like a kid
You're calling like the future
Then you're closed up like a fist

Lost my page when you kissed me
Now I remember the whole book
She almost loses her way 'cause
She followed him after one look

You could take me to Neverland, baby
We could live off of magic and maybes
But I know the girl that you want and it scares me
Behind every lost boy there's always a Wendy

And you're pretty like a girl
'Til you're vicious like a man
Yeah, you give up like a ghost
Leaving halfway through the band

Then you're evasive on the phone
'Til you're sorry on the floor
So I'm throwing you a bone
'Cause you want me and you're sure
If I'm not careful, I'll wake up and we'll be married
And I'll still flinch at the sound of a door

You could take me to Neverland, baby
We could live off of magic and maybes
But I know the girl that you want and it scares me
Behind every lost boy there's always a Wendy
So I'll lock the window and turn on the AC
You'll throw your rocks and you'll scream that you hate me
But it gets old being forever 20
And what about my wings? What about Wendy?

Take the hand and go with him
Be the clock that he watches
Wait until he gets bored and wanders back to the forest
Lose the world that you live in
Pretend that it's what you wanted
It's a life I could have, I know

You could take me to Neverland, baby
We could live off of magic and maybes
I could love you and wait 'til you're ready
But what about my wings? What about Wendy?
So I'll lock the window and turn on the AC
You'll throw your rocks and you'll scream that you hate me
But it gets old being forever 20
And what about my wings? What about Wendy?

What about Wendy?
What about Wendy?
What about Wendy?
What about Wendy?
