

Maite Kelly, What can I say

Oh I'm waiting, yes I'm waiting for you
Some think I'm crazy to love you like I do
But I just let them talk their ways
Well what can I say, I love you in ways
That are better left unsaid
What can I do, I'd be a fool
If I let you walk away, walk away, hmm
Oh I'm shaking, yes I'm shaking for you
And even if all falls apart he belongs to me
And I will always be with him
What can I say, I love your ways
That are better left unsaid
What can I do, I'd be a fool
If I let you walk away
What can I say, I love your ways
That are better left unsaid
What can I do, I'd be a fool
If I let you walk away, walk away, ahaa
Walk away, walk away, ahaa
Hey baby girl don't walk away
When the cats out the house the dogs go play
I told you before I need love and affection
But every time we meet it's in the other direction
Baby girl let me know how you feel
'Cause when I can't see you I'm a sucker for real
You know I do what I can do to show how much the kid loves you
What can I say, I love your ways
That are better left unsaid
What can I do, I'd be a fool
If I let you walk away
What can I say, I love your ways
That are better left unsaid
Walk away, walk away
Oh baby walk away, walk away
Walk away, walk away, ahaa
Walk away
