

Majandra Delfino, Sit And Wait

Waterfall and I'm trying harder, it's all about staying on Good call, I'd hope we'd learn her, but all in all mistakes made strong my rights from my wrong.

So I sit and wait
on this crowded freeway.
But what can I say I
did things my own way,
and don't regret a single day

Twice burned, call me a dreamer Thrice burned, we'll call it a ploy

See I'm no
whining complainer cause what I do
might slant my view, but I won't blame you

So I sit and wait
on this crowded freeway.
But what can I say I
did things my own way,
and don't regret a single day

Oh I thought of taking back the things that seem imprudent, but time-travel might unravel what my slips have proven

So I sit and wait
on this crowded freeway.
But what can I say I
did things my own way,
and don't regret a single day
