

Majestic, Golden Sea

(Andersson / Espinoza)

Before the curtain of the judgement day was here
I, now will tell you all the tales from hell and darkness
Lightning has no end

The fear of Lucifer has brought this simple game
In to the place were ice turns into flames my enemy
From seventh sky...

I'm on my way to golden sea
All the love shall burn
During mention of this war

They can't resist
there's nothing they can do to me
Inside this silent wind
I must remain inside
The sky of golden sea

I'm on my way to golden sea
All the love shall burn
During mention of this war

To a place of destiny
Into flames my enemy

I'm on my way to golden sea
All the love shall burn
During mention of this war

My war...my war...
